STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1.) Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 16913(a), the defendant shall register, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, where he is an employee, and where the defendant is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the sex offender shall also register in the jurisdiction where convicted, if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of residence. If the state of residence is not accepting sex offender registrations pursuant to SORNA and unable to accept the defendant's registration, the defendant must maintain contact with state registration authorities and his probation officer to determine when such registration can be accepted. The duty to register may continue after the expiration of the defendant's federal supervision, and any existing duty to register under state law is not suspended and will remain in effect until the state implements SORNA of 2006. If the defendant's supervision transfers to another federal district, the defendant's duty to register as a required by SORNA shall be governed by that district's policy and laws of that state.

2.) The defendant shall not possess or view sexually explicit material as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2)(A) and (B).

3.) The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed. The defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office. The defendant shall sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the defendant and his relapse prevention plan.

4.) The defendant shall also be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer and at the defendant's expense.

5.) The defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation officer and in compliance with state and local law.

6.) The defendant shall have no contact with any minor children. Contact with minors shall not be permitted even with supervision unless otherwise approved by the Court. The term contact extends to forms of communication such as mail, telephone, and other forms of electronic communication. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, waiters, etc. with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services. The defendant shall be prohibited from loitering where minors congregate, such as playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sporting events, shopping malls, swimming pools, etc.

7.) The defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer the defendant is authorized to use at the defendant's own expense. The software may record any and all activity on the defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversation. This software will be checked on a random basis. The defendant has no expectations of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer if monitoring software is installed and understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against the defendant in subsequent court actions regarding the defendant's computer use and conditions of supervision. The defendant must also warn others of the existence of the software program. The defendant is prohibited from attempting to remove, tamper with, or alter/circumvent in any way the software program. Furthermore, the defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.

8.) The defendant shall submit and/or surrender any media device, to which he has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion or contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision.
